

Dual Diagnosis Professional Conference Series May 11, 2022: Ensuring Responsive Support Options for Persons with Intellectual and Other Developmental Disabilities and Problematic Sexual Behaviors ODP Announcement 22-037

AUDIENCE:

All Professional Stakeholders

PURPOSE:

The Department of Human Services' Office of Developmental Programs (ODP) and the Office of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services (OMHSAS) are pleased to announce the Dual Diagnosis Professional Conference Series, which offers presentations focused on supporting individuals with intellectual disabilities and autism (ID/A) and mental health needs.

This session in the conference series will be held on May 11th, 2022 from 9:00AM to 1:00 PM.

DISCUSSION:

The topic for May 11th is: Ensuring Responsive Support Options for Persons with Intellectual and Other Developmental Disabilities and Problematic Sexual Behaviors.

Presenter Robin J. Wilson, Ph.D., ABPP will oversee an interactive workshop focusing on methods to ensure that individuals with disabilities have the same access to evidence-based methods in sexual violence prevention. A particular focus will be on ensuring healthy sexuality options, in addition to managing situations of risk

Additional information may be found on the session flyer.

Registration is required and at no charge to attendees. Four (4) hours of training credit and a certificate of achievement are provided.

Use the following link on the MyODP website to register:

<https://www.myodp.org/course/view.php?id=1957>.

A Demographics Form will need to be completed before the registration link will become available.

For questions on registration, email: patraining@columbusorg.com.